Missing Adult Linda Field Located in San Jacinto County

Update: 4:00 pm

Montgomery County Sheriff's Office is happy to announce that the missing adult Linda Field, who went missing from her home in Porter, Texas on September 17, 2019, has been found. On the afternoon of September 27, ten days after Linda went missing, her vehicle was observed by a citizen in a wooded area near the end of Donahoe Road in Cold Spring Texas. Deputies from San Jacinto County Sheriff's Office, Montgomery County Sheriff's Office along with canine handlers from the Texas Department of Criminal Justice and Allegiance Mobile Health Services staff searched the area for two hours. Linda was found alive in a creek bed approximately 200-300 yards from the nearest residence. Linda was transported to the Livingston Hospital due to dehydration and fatigue, but we are thankful she was found safe.
